ISSUES

- ♦ Designing a multi-station and food court area in a new campus student center and dining facility.
- ♦ Creating a stylish, fun and functional serving environment for a 580-seat dining hall and cyber café.
- ♦ Choosing durable, renewable materials that will stand up to the wear and tear of a busy food service environment as well as daily use by the student population.

CHALLENGES

- ♦ Selecting surface materials that were durable and easy to maintain but could also add color and beauty as a featured design element.
- ♦ Finding materials that could meet the varied design requirements for a number of unique applications including: hot/cold serving platforms, tray stands, countertops, display boxes and beverage stations.
- ♦ Choosing surfaces that could stand up to spills, stains, chips, cracks, extreme temperatures and food service code requirements.

SOLUTIONS

- ♦ With a sleek, seamless, streamlined look and varied color palette, Corian® and Zodiaq® added a cohesive element to the many varied chef serving stations.
- ♦ Corian® and Zodiaq® surface materials are both durable and renewable. They resist chips, cracks, scratches and stains—making cleaning and maintenance simple.
- ♦ A wide range of features made Corian® and Zodiaq® ideal for a food service environment. These included: heat and stain resistance, NSF/ANSI 51 food contact Certification and a Class 1(A) fire rating.

BENEFITS

- ♦ With its unmatched durability, extensive color palette and endless fabrication options, Corian® is one of the most versatile surface materials available.
- ♦ The radiant quartz surface of Zodiaq® is beautifully unique and durable. It requires no sealants or treatments, keeping cleaning and maintenance simple.
- ♦ Both Corian® and Zodiaq® are beautiful and stylish, yet practical and functional—making them the ideal choice for a wide range of food service applications.
